Our Prayer to our Guardian Angel

Angel sent by God to Guide us

Be our Light and Walk beside us

Be our Guardian and Protect us

On the Paths of Life Direct us. Amen

Pastoral Councils: At recent meetings:

Unfortunately, the time has come when we cannot have two 10am Masses every second Sunday. So, as discussed:

Ballaghmore 9.15am, Knock 9.15am and Camblin

10.15am. Our Saturday evening masses and 11.30am in St. Cronan's will remain the same. We priests really appreciate your understanding and co-operation in this matter. We will also have singing and music at these new Mass times. Changes will come into effect in August.

Go to the Limits of Your Longing

God speaks to each of us as he makes us, then walks with us silently out of the night. These are the words we dimly hear:

You, sent out beyond your recall, go to the limits of your longing. Embody me. Flare up like a flame and make big shadows I can move in. Let everything happen to you:
beauty and terror. Just keep going. No feeling is final.
Don't let yourself lose me. Nearby is the country they call life. You will know it by its seriousness. Give me your hand. By Rainer Maria Rilke

Graveyard Masses

Couraguneen – Sat July 6th 7.30pm

Ballaghmore (covers Kyle Graveyard as well)

– Sun July 7th 10am

Roscrea – Mon July 8th 7.30pm

Dungar – Wed July 10th 7.30pm

His Eminence Cardinal Pietro Parolin, Secretary of State of his Holiness will ordain to the Episcopacy Msgr. Séamus Patrick Horgan, Titular Archbishop of Árd Sratha Apostolic Nuncio to South Sudan on Saturday 27th July at 11am in the Cathedral of Saints Peter & Paul, Ennis County Clare. At the end of the Sacred Ordination Rite, the Apostolic Nuncio will be happy to greet all those present at the Parish Hall next to the Cathedral. The following day, Sunday July 28th Archbishop Horgan will offer a Mass of thanksgiving in the Cathedral at 11.30am.

Child Safeguarding Policy Statement of the Diocese of Killaloe

The Gospel teaches the importance of ensuring that the Catholic Church community is a warm, welcoming and safe place for children.

Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

Truly I tell you, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.

(Mark 10:14-15)

Children are gifts from God, to be cherished and recognised for the joyful contribution they make as valued members of the Church.

Our challenge is to follow the example of Jesus in cherishing them. Safeguarding is key to this important task and should be seen, not as a burden, but as an opportunity to embrace and encourage children's ministry, following the example of Jesus Christ.

This Church body pledges to safeguard children and young people from harm and to support them in their development as valued and integral members of the Catholic Church in Ireland. The Church's ministry will be inclusive and will uphold their rights.

Consistent with Gospel values, and with civil and criminal law, those who minister will do so with dignity and integrity, honouring their calling to ensure that children and young people are welcomed, cherished and protected, following the example set by Jesus.

This Safeguarding Children Policy will be honoured and complied with by all ordained clerics, by vowed female and male religious, and by all lay staff and volunteers in the Catholic Church in Ireland.

A thought as we receive the Sacred Host

“Amen” is our response as we receive the host at Communion. The translation of Amen is:
Truly, firm, so be it.

As we receive the host, we firmly believe that we receive the Body of Christ.

Jesus truly enters our hearts so that we may become what we receive.

Care in Bereavement

Be open to hope. Life is for living, (your heart is still beating) so you must live for yourself. And then your children, those around you.

What we run from pursues us and what the face transforms us, (we change/evolve from this experience in our lives). Nothing stays the same.

Pain from loss is inevitable but suffering is optional. Awareness of your thoughts. Grief is about your heart but our mind can take over. There are the facts of what happened then the mind builds a story around the facts. Previous loss/trauma can magnify your grief.

Roscrea Tidy Towns

Last Friday 28th June we were delighted to welcome some very helpful volunteers from Turas Nua under the leadership of Gráinne Hogan. They arrived at 9.30am and worked until 12.30. Their contribution to Tidy Towns was to paint the seats and pump at the Moneen Garden, the pumps at various locations around the town and the bollards at Church St. near the Round Tower all of which needed some attention as they were showing signs of being exposed to the weather etc.

Tidy Towns would like to thank all the Turas Nua volunteers for their wonderful work. Ní neart go cur le chéile!

The Trinitarian Love that Loves to Love

‘ALONE’ with none but “Thee-My-God”, I JOURNEY
If we are not ‘AWARE’ of God, we are ‘HOMELESS’
‘AWARENESS’ = “Intimacy with God’s Presence”

Charity

Is it not to share your food with the hungry and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter—
when you see the naked, to clothe them,
and not to turn away from your own flesh and blood?
Then your light will break forth like the dawn,
and your healing will quickly appear;
then your righteousness will go before you,
and the glory of the Lord will be your rear guard.
Then you will call, and the Lord will answer;
you will cry for help, and he will say: Here am I.
“If you do away with the yoke of oppression,
with the pointing finger and malicious talk,
and if you spend yourselves on behalf of the hungry
and satisfy the needs of the oppressed, then your light will rise in the darkness,
and your night will become like noonday.
