LITURGY OF THE WORD WITH HOLY COMMUNION

As Friday, July 4th was first Friday of the month, Ballaghmore parish had its 2nd Liturgy of the Word with Holy Communion at 7.30pm. There will be no Liturgy of the Word with Holy Communion in August but it will resume on Friday, September 6th. All are welcome to join us in prayer.

The Hurlers Prayer

Grant me O Lord, a hurler's skill, with strength of arm and speed of limb unerring eye for the flying ball
And courage to match whate'er befall
May my stroke be steady and my aim be true
My actions manly and my misses few
No matter what way the game may go
May I rest in friendship with every foe
When the final whistle for me has blown
And I stand at last before God's judgement throne
May the great referee when he calls my name
Say, you hurled like a man, you played the game.

- Seamus Redmond
Up Tipp - Tipp Abú

Graveyard Masses

Newly Baptised!

We welcome into our Catholic Christian Community: Adalyn Simmons & Kaja Dziewonska. We remember you in our prayers & we wish God's blessing on you & your families at this very special time & always!

Annual Procession celebrating the Feast of the Assumption: Will take place from the Citeaux Hall, Ballyskenach (E53 AE02) gathering on August 15th at 6:45pm to follow the 600metre procession route towards Our Lady's Grotto in Clybenane. Where there will be prayers, gospel readings and prayers of the faithful. This will mark the first procession to the Grotto in recent times and marking the 50th anniversary of the resumption of the procession in 1975, after extensive clearance work. There will be a photo exhibition in the hall of the history of the processions with refreshments from 8pm. All are encouraged to join us and mark the historic occasion.

Child's Prayer

O dearest loving Jesus, please help me to be good,
To say the things and do the things that all good children should, and if sometimes I slip a bit and things get out of hand, O dearest loving Jesus help the grown-ups understand, that it isn't always easy to be as good as good can be, but that I'm getting better Lord because you're helping me! Amen

Roscrea Tidy Towns

While the wet weather we have is most welcome after the long hot and dry spell, it has limited effect on watering. Floral displays throughout the town are lush, for the most part, but some hanging baskets are showing signs of suffering from drought!
Floral displays in containers of any sort need constant watering as between wind and sun they dry out faster than those planted in flower beds. Rain is good for baskets, but in a limited way – as they have grown lush, their leaves act like an umbrella and prevent a great deal of the rain from penetrating to the roots. That's why watering is done to the roots, not poured on the plants themselves.
Judging time is still around in the Tidy Towns competition, so we ask everyone to make a special effort to prevent litter etc. especially over the coming weekend as we hopefully celebrate a Tipperary win in the All Ireland! We wish the team every success on Sunday!

Church of St. James, Cashel, Co. Galway

He built a church beside the road, in the bushes above the sea, for the poor plain folk o' the twisted lands, an' poorer and plainer he, then the poorest neighbour speaking his name.
With a blessing', night an' day, for all that he was, an' all that he did, in the Master's name an' way.
An' he who built the grey-stone church, in the bushes above the sea, is gone long years to the Master's land, but somehow it seems to me, he's watchin out an' over the stars, thro' the lenght o' the earthly day, an' helping the folk o' the twisted lands, whenever they kneel to pray.

I Sing All Day

Music plays inside of me, and tunes are in my head;
From waking time each morning until I go to bed.
Music makes me happy, and things cannot go wrong,
When I am filled with melody, and sing my faith in Song.
- Ilo Orleans…

Choirs, Singing and Music in our Pastoral Area:

Thank You for your weekly dedication and commitment. Some of our Choirs will take a well-deserved break for August.
Thanks for providing singing and music in our churches for weekend masses.
Our expectation and hope is that in September all our weekend masses in all Churches will have music and singing.
As St. Augustine said: "When you sing you pray twice".
