Trócaire are holding a national Church collection this weekend the 22nd July to fund life-saving aid for people currently affected by the devastating hunger crisis in East Africa. Because there is already a collection planned in this Parish this weekend for Children & Adults with Learning Disabilities the Trócaire collection will be held next weekend 29th / 30th July. It will be taken up after each Mass next weekend.

Over 24 million people are facing malnutrition and the threat of famine.. Trócaire is currently reaching over 150,000 people across the East Africa region with emergency food, water, sanitation and healthcare. The money raised will go directly to Trócaire emergency response, which is helping to deliver food, water, healthcare and other life-saving aid to people affected. Announcing the collection, Archbishop Eamon Martin, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of All Ireland, said the situation is critical and urged support for the collection from parishioners.
