Dunkerrin XO Heritage Committee are presently completing a project on all religious from the Parish and surrounding areas. In this regard we invite families would give us names and details of Religious nuns, priests, brothers and Ministers from all denominations who were either born in the Parish or had any connections with the Parish. The Heritage Group intend publishing a booklet in 2017 of all who served to spread the Word of God. Please contact either Anne O'Rourke or Dolores Whyte for further information and to give names/details etc.

The family of Sharon McGrath nee O'Meara wish to write a note of thanks to the people of Moneygall and surrounding areas for the success of the recent coffee morning but we struggle to find the right words. It is hard to convey how proud we are of the village we are from. The inherent kindness and unquestioning giving that exists here is something to behold and these clearly are values that have been passed generation to generation. The turnout was extraordinary as was the sentiment expressed and funds raised. Time and again we were told that no thanks was needed but nevertheless, thank you all...very very very much.

The lucky winners of the Lip Sync fundraiser for the golden girls & Bob's raffle are as follows 1st prize Mark Fanning 2nd prize Sarah McNamara, Dunkerrin 3rd prize Paddy Byrne Loughawn. Thanks to everybody who supported the draw. Also thank you to Kevin & Anne McCormack who facilitated the raffle.
