Easter: Easter, our greatest feast, begins today with the great excitement of Palm Sunday. Holy Week presents to us the whole range of human life & human emotions. No doubt, at some point, all of us will go through what Jesus experienced during Holy Week. The friendship of Holy Thursday, the dying of Good Friday all visit us at some time. The basic element of our faith is that Christ has died & He has risen & that we can all share in that miracle. Our faith tells us never to lose hope. May we all hold onto the values & the Easter vision that Jesus brought us. As we prepare for Ireland hosting the World Meeting of Families in August 2018 & the visit of Pope Francis to our shores, we might take this opportunity to pray for our own family & the families who make up our parishes, that in journeying through Holy Week together, we may be a source of love & support to each other always & a sign of Christian hope in the world.
