Reminder of September Priests Collection

which will be taken up this weekend, 2nd & 3rd September.
Please use specific envelope from annual supply.

Life is full of give & take: give thanks & take nothing for granted!

With the last of our local schools returning this coming week, we extend best wishes to all as they embark on a new academic year! We ask God to watch over the staff, the students, all involved in the running of our schools & their families, & to keep them safe in all their endeavours.

Bringing Holy Communion Home: All our pyxes are out on loan at the moment; if you have one & are no longer using it, please return it to the Sacristy/Parish Office so that we can loan it to someone else who needs one.

Parish Shop: Our Parish Shop opens immediately after weekday & weekend Masses. Its stocks a variety of cards, statues, gravelights & prayers, as well as many other religious items. Volunteers are required to help out in the shop after each weekday & weekend Mass – it only takes a few minutes & it is hoped to recruit enough volunteers to work on a rota basis. For further information or to offer your time, please contact Anita at 0505-21955/086-3337266 or Angela in the Parish Office. All help appreciated.
